Thoughts from Bill:

God's Commandment of Love

1 John 2:7-17

The term love is used many different ways. For example, we may say we love ice cream, or we love this weather; we may say we love a particular piece of clothing or a pair of shoes. You see love sometimes is lowered to a form of liking something. The love in our text is agape love, which is a decision to love despite the cost, circumstances, or the actions of the recipient of that love. In this lesson we want to focus on God's commandment of love found in our text.

We first want to consider the commandment of love found in 1 John 2:7-11. Verse 7 presents the law concerning love. It is not a new commandment but appears in Leviticus 19:18 and Matthew 22:39. This love deals with those whom we come in contact with. In verse 8, John gives a new commandment which could be a retelling of Christ's commands in John 14:15, 15:12. Verse 8 also speaks of darkness and light. The darkness represents sin, and as John alluded to in chapter one verses 5 and 6, God is light and in Him there is no darkness at all. If we are in darkness [sin], we cannot have fellowship with God. Christians are to walk in the light (1 Jn. 1:7). Verses 9 through 11 talk about the love we are to have. Verse 9 points out that one cannot hate his brother and live in the light at the same time (see 1 Jn. 4:20). John in verse 10 points out that love of our brother is proof that we are not in darkness. Verse 11 says the person who does not love his brother is blind to the truth and does not know where he is going because darkness has blinded his eyes.

John in verses 12 through 14 focuses on control of love. He speaks about relationships and how love is to control those relationships. John in verse 12 writes to little children whose sins are forgiven. The phrase little children is a term of affection that John uses 18 times in this book in the NKJV. "Little children" could refer to Christians regardless of age who according to verse 14 have known the Father. Love needs to control us if we have our sins forgiven through Christ. In the first part of verse 13, John addresses "fathers." This term could be used for literal fathers or for those who are older in the faith who have known Christ literally from the beginning. Lastly, James addresses his remarks to "young men." These "young men" have been exposed to sin and have overcome the evil one (Psa. 119:9-11).

Finally, John speaks of a condition of love in verses 15 through 17. John places the condition of not loving the things of the world. The "world" is anything that separates man from God (Matt. 6:24; Rom. 12:2; James 1:27). If the love of the world is in us, then the love of the Father is not in us. In verse 16, John speaks of the love of the character of the world. Listen to the New Living Translation of this verse: "For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father but are from this world." Finally in verse 17, John gives the condition of change. The world and all of its loss passes away, but if we do God's will we will live forever.

Are you obeying God's commandment of love?
