Thoughts from Bill:

The Means of Spiritual Growth

Philippians 2:5-13

Last week's lesson dealt with the nature of spiritual growth as we looked at how God wants us to grow spiritually. This week we want to look at some means of spiritual growth that we must use to grow up to the full measure of Christ (Eph. 4:13).

Christians need to first realize that God supplies the resources for spiritual growth. The first resource God supplies is the example of His only begotten Son. Our text for this lesson reminds us of the great sacrifice Jesus made when He took upon the form of a servant as He journeyed from heaven to His death on the cross, ultimately returning to the right hand of His Father in heaven. Philippians 2:12-13 then urges Christians to obey and work knowing that God works in them to accomplish His good pleasure. Peter writes in 1 Peter 1:3 that God has given us all things that “pertain to life and godliness” that will help us to grow spiritually. Paul tells Christians that what God began in them can be accomplished and brought to completion (Phil. 1:6).

God has done His part to help Christians grow spiritually, but His people must put in the effort to grow spiritually. Philippians 2:12 says that Christians must obey and work out their own salvation by fear and trembling. Paul in Romans 6:19 commands Christians to change from presenting themselves as slaves to sin, and present themselves as slaves of righteousness for holiness. 1 Timothy 4:7 says: “But reject profane and old wives’ fables, and exercise yourself toward godliness.” Peter said that Christians must be diligent to be found by Christ in peace, without spot and blemish (2 Peter 3:14). Listen to Paul in Ephesians 6:15-16 (NASV2020): “So then, be careful how you walk, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of your time, because the days are evil.”

In closing, we now want to turn our attention to some specific steps we must take to grow spiritually. First, there must be a death to self-interest. This is evidenced in the example of Christ in our text. Colossians 3:5 calls upon the Christian to “put to death” many things which may come “naturally” to them because they are human. They must not give into these things because they are against God’s will. Jesus practiced and preached self-denial. Matthew 16:24 says: “Then Jesus said to His disciples, ‘If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.’” A Christian should take the step towards knowing the scripture to grow spiritually (Jos. 1:8; Psa. 19:7-8; 2 Tim. 3:16-17; Col. 3:16). Prayer is also a crucial step in growing spiritually (2 Chron. 16:11-12; Matt. 26:41; Col. 4:2 (NET); Eph. 6:18; 1 Thess. 5:17). Focusing on Jesus is another key step in growing spiritually. As our text indicates, He is seated above at the right hand of the throne of God. We must take His yoke upon us and learn of Him (Matt. 11:29-30). We need to look to Jesus (Heb. 12:2-3) and follow His example (1 Pet. 2:21). Christians must take steps to grow in faith to grow spiritually. Christians must take the shield of faith to quench the fiery darts of the devil (Eph 6:16). They must believe in God and His power to do what He promises (Heb. 11:6). Christians must know faith is key in overcoming the world (1 Jn. 5:4). Finally, a Christian must take steps to persevere in all things until God completes His work in them (Phil. 3:12-14; Heb. 12:1; 1 Jn. 3:2-3; Phil. 1:6; 1 Peter 1:6-7). Christians need to keep on keeping on until God one day grants them a heavenly home with Christ.
